To the Afflicted.-A Certain Remedy.

PELLETIER'S PILE SPECIFIC

In presenting my PILE SPECIFIC to the community, I am fully aware that hundreds, like myself, have been disappointed in so-called remedies. For sixteen years I suffered all the agonies incident to the most aggravated case of Piles, augmented by "Fistula," in its worst form. Having tried in vain everything I could hear of in the nature of specifics, remedies, etc., I determined to try my own judgment, and the SPECIFIC I now so confidently place before the public is the result.

I have tried it in scores of cases with my individual friends, and hundreds of strangers, and I have yet to hear of a single instance of failure to alleviate and cure.

I cordially invite the suffering portion of the public to visit the Office,

REPORT OF BOARD OF HEALTH.

District of Columbia,

BOARD OF HEALTH,

Washington, December 4, 1877.

The Sanitary Committee, to whom was referred the Downey Sewer Trap for investigation, and report, have the honor to state that they have examined said invention on its theoretical principle, and mode of application, and find it to consist of a ball valve, sliding across the induction pipe in such a manner as to stand nominally closed, and yet to yield to slight pressure from behind—an influx of water will displace it, escaping thus without obstacle; and as this flow ceases, the ball rolls back closing the opening perfectly, preventing regurgitation of water, or rising of gases.

It is of great practical utility, particularly in the District of Columbia, where the high tides and freshets often press the sewerage water backward, even into the basements of many of our dwellings in the lower districts of the city.

Your Committee is satisfied that this invention is of great practical value in sanitary engineering, and, therefore, recommend it to the consideration of the Board, and of the people who need appliances to prevent the regurgitation of sewerage water, or introduction of sewer gases into their dwellings through stationary basins and bath tubs.

Signed, T. S. VERDI, Sanitary Committee.
D. W. BLISS,

Adopted by the Board of Health, December 4, 1877.

[Correct copy.]

D. S. Jones, Chief Clerk.

W. F. DOWNEY, Esq.—Dear Sir: Before adopting your valuable invention I was a frequent sufferer from the back-flow sewerage matter, which on several occasions was the cause of tenants leaving my houses: but I am happy to say that since the introduction of your Trap, although we have had several heavy storms, my premises have on no occasion been flooded.

MR. W. F. DOWNEY—Dear Sir: I can cheerfully recommend your patent Automatic Sewer Valve Trap to any person whose residence may suffer from flooding by back flow of water from the sewer drain. Last summer my house had several inches of water in the summer from the end to four times from the above-mentioned cause, but since your apparatus has been put in I have been entirely free from any annoyance from the cause referred to.

Yours respectfully,

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 28, 1877.

DIRECTORY

STREETS, AVENUES, ALLEYS, ROADS, &c.

There are 1170 originally laid out blocks or squares, bounded by 21 avenues, and over 100 streets in the city, irrespective of the suburbs. The Capitol is nearly the centre of the city, and from it the streets are laid out at right angles, and according to our new system of numbering, are divided into four grand cardinal sections. All the streets lying northwest of the centre of the Capitol have northwest attached to them, those southeast, southwest and northeast are named in the same manner. new system of numbering is called the decimal system, and is on the principle of allowing 100 for every square. It is beneficial to the city in case of fire or tearing down of a block of buildings. It does not disarrange the numbers ahead of that square. The streets named alphabetically run east and west from North and South Capitol streets; the streets named by numerals run north and south from East Capitol and the Mall. The avenues are laid out diagonally, as to the right-angle streets; their names will be found below. Many of the squares or blocks are so large that additional streets and alleys have been opened and named. Many of these alleys were named by the Directory men while canvassing, generally from some local cause. A glance at the past and present list of streets and alleys will show how these latter are increasing. We have added a list of all the roads, places, halls and villages in the District, which will be found very useful.

ARK

This delightful suburban property has sprung into existence in the short space of three years, in spite of hard times and a dull real estate market. It is the only property in the District that has held its own or advanced in value during that time. The revival of business is sure to carry it up with greater rapidity than any other property in the District. Now is the time to buy. Prices are still lower, due regard being had to all the elements of value, than that of any other property, and we will give terms of purchase that cannot be equaled elsewhere.

More than forty houses of varied sizes, style and cost have been built within the three years, all but two or three of which are occupied, (and many of them owned,) by families of unexceptionable social standing and character—in all more than two hundred persons—a wonderful increase of over 3,300 per cent. during the time named,

Houses and lots for sale upon terms to suit.

Purchasers of lots who make immediate improvements can have a term of years in which to pay for the ground at a low rate of interest.

Those visiting the property should take the Seventh or Ninth street cars to Boundary street. Carriages will be furnished when desired.

Offers to business men the finest offices at the lowest rates. It is in the heart of the city. It was built, and rooms are let, solely for office uses. All the partition walls are of brick, extending t the top of the building. The offices are well ventilated and thoroughly lighted. A few rooms to let at rates to suit the times.

THE EVENING STAR.

THE WEEKLY STAR.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

THE EVENING STAR is everywhere recognized as the leading newspaper of Washington. With two exceptions only, it has the largest circulation of any daily paper published south of New York, more than three times that of any other in the city, and equal to that of all the other daily papers in Washington added together. To advertisers, therefore, it presents peculiar and unequalled advantages, in the extent and character of its circulation, and in the low rates charged, considering the wide publicity it insures. It is, indeed, within its scope,

THE BEST ADVERTISING MEDIUM IN THE UNITED STATES.

THE EVENING STAR is furnished to subscribers at the following low rates: By carriers, in the city, 10 cents a week; by mail, 60 cents a month, or $6.00 per year, postage prepaid; single copies, 2 cents.

THE WEEKLY STAR.—This is a double or eight-page sheet, containing fifty-six columns of fresh News, Literary and Agricultural matter every week, and is pronounced by competent judges,

The Cheapest and Best Weekly Paper in the United States.

TERMS: $2.00 per year; 10 copies for $15.00; 20 copies for $20.00.

All Mail Subscriptions must be paid in advance, and no paper sent longer than paid for. Specimen copies furnished gratis.

A Schedule of Advertising Prices (from which there is no deviation) will be sent to any address on application.

Address, in all cases,

CEORCES'

And Water-Proof

GEORGES' LEATHER PRESERVATIVE AND WATER-PROOF OIL COMPOSITION invented and patented by J. J. GEORGES, completely supercedes rubber overshoes. It renders leather impervious to water. Besides, it keeps it soft, pliable, and agreeable to the feet, greatly contributing to the comfort of the wearer, preventing corns and bunions; it prolongs the wear of leather, and does not prevent it taking a good polish. It not only keeps boots and shoes in good condition, but removes the necessity for overshoes. It is an excelent article for harness leather. Mr. Georges was awarded a premium certificate for his invention at the recent fair held at Rockville, Md. For sale by the inventor, patentee and manufacturer,

TO THE AFFLICTED.

A CERTAIN REMEDY.

DIDINIS PID SPORC.

In presenting my PILE SPECIFIC to the community, I am fully aware that hundreds like myself have been disappointed in so-called remedies. For sixteen years I suffered all the agonies incident to the most aggravated case of Piles, augmented by "Fistula," in its worst form. Having tried in vain everything I could hear of in the nature of specifics, remedies, &c., I determined to try my own judgment, and the SPECIFIC I now so confidently place before the public is the result.

I have tried it in scores of cases with my individual friends, and hundreds of strangers, and I have yet to hear of a single instance of failure to alleviate and cure.

I cordially invite the suffering portion of the public to visit my Laboratory and Office, No. 615 SEVENTH STREET, nw., WASHINGTON, D. C., and see some of the many testimonials there of its efficiency, from our best citizens.

GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

EXECUTIVE.

Executive Mansion.

Executive Mansion.

The President's Mansion or White House as it is familiarly called, is on Pennsylvania avenue, between 5th and/Th streets nw, and fronting Layfette Square It was erected in 1792; rebuilt after the war of 1812. It is built of free stone and painted white. The lawns around, containing some twenty acres, drop gradually toward the Potomac river. This elegant but not imposing edifice is two stories high, 170 feet long, 86 feet deep. On the Pennsylvania avenue front, the building has a portico with four Ionic columns, under which carriages pass. A sectional colonnade of six Doric pillars adorns the Potomac front. In the centre of the lawn, across the avenue on the north, is Clark Mill's bronze equestrian statue of General Jackson, receted in January, 1853. The artist has the honor to be the first to succeed in erecting a statue representing a steed poised upon its hind feet, with no other support. It is east of cannon taken by Jackson, and cost $50,000. Near the President's Mansion, on the west side, are the New State Department building, a very imposing structure, also the very plain buildings of the Navy and War Departments, and on the other side the Treasury Department.

Situated on E corner of 24th northwest, on the banks of the Potomac towards Georgetown. The site is a beautiful one, having a commanding view of the surrounding country. It occupies a high rank among the observatories of the world, there being but one (that in Russia) superior to it.

The Smithsonian Institution is within the area of the Mall, west of the Capitol and south of Pennsylvania avenue. This noble institution was endowed by James Smithson, of England, "for the increase and diffusion of knowledge among men." The edifice is constructed of the red sandstone in the Norman Romanesque style. Its length is 430 ft. is breadth 140, and its nine towers from 75 to 150 high. The immense library formerly in this institution has been transferred to the Congressional Library. The national collections of natural history, geology, &c, of the United States Exploring and Surveying Expeditions are deposited in the institution. The preservation of these collections is but a part of the operations of the establishment. Through its influence a series of scientific investigations are carried on by collaborators in different parts of the country, and the results are published in a series of quarto volumes, called the "Smithsonian Contributions to Knowledge.," copies of which are sent in exchange for other publications to all the principal libraries in the world. The Library of Congress occupies the central west front of the central Capitol building. The original library was commenced in 1800, but was destroyed with the Capitol in 1814, during the war with England. It was afterwards replenished by the purchase of the library belonging to ex-President Jefferson by Congress, embracing about 7,000 volumes. In 1851 it contained 55,000 volumes, and by an accidental fire in that year the whole collection was destoyed, except 20,000 volumes. It was rebuilt in 1852, when $75,000 was appropriated in one sum to replenish the collection. The new library halls, three in number, are fitted up with ornamental fron cases and iron ceilings, the whole being perfectly fireproof. The Library is recruited by regular appropriations made by Congress, which average about 12,000 per annum, also by additions received by copyright, and from the Smithsonian Institution. The library of the Smithsonian Institution. The library of the Smithsonian Institution as now been deposited in the library of Congress, where it is secured against loss by fire This collection is especially rich in scientific works, embracing the largest assemblage of the transactions of learned societies which exist in the country. The library of copyright books was removed here from the Patent Office in 1870, and all copyrights issued in the United States are now recorded in the books deposited in the office of the Librarian of Congress. The present number of volumes in the whole library, including law books, which are kept in a separate library under the Supreme Court, is over 315-600. This collection is very rich in history, political science, jurisprudence, and in books, pamphlets and periodicals of American publication, or relating in any way to America. At the same time, the library is a universal one in its range, no department of literature or science being unrepresented. The public are privileged the use of Congress and about thirty official nembers of the books in the library, while members of the books in the library

THE CAPITOL.

The Capitol fronts the east, and stands on a plateau ninety feet above the level of the Potomac, in latitude 38° 55′ 48″ north and longitude 77° 1′ 48″ west from Greenwich.

The south-east corner-stone of the original building was laid on the 18th of September, 1793, by President Washington, aided by the Freemasons of Maryland. It was constructed of sand-stone, painted white, from an island in Aquia Creek, Virginia, under the direction of Stephen H. Hallett, James Hoban, Geo. Hadfield, and afterwards of B. H. Latrobe, architects. The north wing was finished in 1800 and the south wing in 1811, a wooden passage-way connecting them. On the 24th of August, 1814, the interior of both wings was destroyed by British incendiaries, but they were immediately rebuilt. In 1818 the central portion of the building was commenced under the architectural superintendence of Charles Bulfinch, and the original building was finally completed in 1827. Its cost, including the grading of the grounds, alterations and repairs, up to 1827, was $2,433,844 13

The corner-stone of the extensions to the Capitol was laid on the 4th of July, 1851, by President Fillmore, Daniel Webster officiating as orator of the day. Thomas U. Walter was architect, and subsequently Edward Clark, under whose direction the work was completed in November, 1867. The material used for the extension is white marble from the quarries at Lee, Massachusetts, with white marble columns from the quarries at Cock-eysville, Maryland.

The dome of the original central building was constructed of wood, but was removed in 1856 to be replaced by the present stupendous structure of east iron, which was completed in 1865. The entire weight of iron used is 8,909,200 pounds. The main building is three hundred and fifty-two feet four inches long in front and one hundred and twenty-one feet six inches deep, with a portico one hundred and sixty feet wide, of twenty-four col-umns on the east, and a projection of eighty-three feet on the west, embracing a recessed portico of ten coupled columns. The extensions are placed at the north and south ends of the main building, with connecting corridors forty-four feet long by fifty-six feet wide, flanked by columns. Each extension is one hundred and fortytwo feet eight inches in front, by two hundred and thirty-eight feet ten inches deep, with porticos of twenty-two columns each on their eastern fronts, and with porticos of ten columns on their ends and on their western fronts. The entire length of the building is seven hundred and fifty-one feet four inches, and the greatest depth, including porticos and steps, is three hundred and twenty-four feet. The area covdred and twenty-four feet. ered by the entire building is one hundred and fifty-three thousand one hundred and twelve square feet.

The dome is crowned by a bronze statue of Freedom, modeled by Crawford, which is nineteen feet six inches high, and which weighs 14,985 pounds. The height of the dome above the base-line of the east front is two hundred and eighty-seven feet eleven inches; the height from the top of the balustrade of the building is two hundred and seventeen feet eleven inches; and the greatest diameter at the base is one hundred and thirty-five feet five inches.

The rotunda is ninety-five feet six inches in diameter, and its height from the floor to the top of the canopy is one hundred and eighty feet three inches.

The Senate chamber is one hundred and twelve feet in length, by eighty-two feet in width, and thirty feet in height. Its galleries will accommodate one thousand persons.

The Representatives' Hall is one hundred and thirty feet in length, by ninety-three feet in width, and thirty feet in height.

The Supreme Court room was occupied by the Senate until December, 1680, the court having previously occupied the room beneath, now used as a law library.

The Library of Congress was burned by the British in 1814, and was partially destroyed by an accidental fire in 1851. The present center hall was finished in 1853, and the wing halls were finished in 1867.
